

ACADEMY COURSES

Develop your creative skills on one of our courses

Jeremy Bortz has been running his picture framing business from home for 12 years and has developed an interest in works of art entrusted to him. He is serious about preservation in our present day environment. Under the guidance of various environmentalists, Jeremy has studied the correct procedure for matt board cutting and framing. Commissions awarded to Jeremy Bortz include the Nedbank Wildlife Trust Board of Executors, SA Breweries, Gary Player and Telkom.

During this course you will learn preparation, preservation, matt board selection, creative matt board cutting, framing selection, frame cutting and joining, box framing including float framing and tips on touch-ups.

In Durban Delyse Stevenson shows you how to effectively decorate your home with flowers.

In Cape Town Karen Coetzee will share some of the tricks of soft furnishings, in a series of morning courses.

Most courses include practicals

Jeremy Bortz

who what where when

Sale of Artworks

A sale of Sue Dickinson watercolour, acrylic, oil paintings and drawings will be held on May 9. This sale will take place at Framcraft Studio, 38 4th Avenue, Melville and will run from 09h00 - 18h00.

Fine Art Exhibition

A superb exhibition of paintings and sculpture, commissioned by the Alice Art Gallery will run from May 9 - 13 at the Krugersdorp High School. Over 100 works by 20 artists will be on display.

The Cape Gourmet Food Festival

The Cape Gourmet Food Festival will be held at the Good Hope Centre in Cape Town from May 25 - 31, 1998.

One of the highlights of the show is the Culinary Academy, a high-tech demonstration theatre where renowned international chefs from Australia, Indonesia, Boston, California and London will display their culinary skills.

For more information contact the Cape Gourmet Festival (021) 45 0069.

Garden & Interiors '98

This year's Garden & Interior Show will take place from July 23-26, 1998 and will be held at the Dome, Northgate, Gauteng.

The theme is 'Future Living', offering the visitor the opportunity to interpret their ideas of what the future holds. Along with a variety of exhibitions, various seminars and workshops will also be held. For further information, phone Chantelle Meybergh (011) 444 3937, fax (011) 444 7987, or Bryan Bales (011) 646 9600, fax (011) 646 8162.

Designing with Nature

A flower demonstration by six leading members of the Western Cape Demonstration Panel will take place on Thursday, May 7 at 10h00, in the Bellville Civic Centre, Cape Town.

A donation of R25 will be collected. To acquire your tickets, contact Linda (021) 856 4527, or Henriette at (0224) 77005.

Musical Interlude

The Slayley Woods home of Charles and Joan Crookes at Park Rynie, will be the venue for a nostalgic show by Colin Penn, featuring the music of George Gershwin and Jerome Kern. This will be followed by a sundowner party.

The show will take place on Sunday,

May 17, beginning at 13h30. All profits from R50 donation will go to the Alexandra home for the Aged. Phone (0323) 20456.

Pottery Exhibition

The Art Association of Bellville, in conjunction with the Association of Potters in South Africa will be hosting an 'Anything that Pours' exhibition which will run from June 10 - July 1 at the Arts Association of Bellville gallery.

Artists were invited to create anything that pours, from decanters to urns, crock jars, vessels, carafes and ewers of any size or description - and not necessarily functional by nature. The result is a collection of unique and extraordinary exhibits. For further information phone Debbie Odendaal (021) 918 2287.

All-new Kitchen and Bedroom Fair '98

The Kitchen Specialist Association (KSA) has introduced a bedroom division into the annual fair which will be held between May 7-10, at the Dome in Northgate. The fair will showcase the latest design innovations in kitchens, bedrooms and bathrooms.

A series of special events, such as cooking demonstrations by international chefs, backed by South African celebrities and local chefs as well as specialist talks presented on a variety of subjects will form part of this year's fair. For further information, contact the KSA (011) 784 3438/39.